

cooking schools

Burning Beats' cooking schools are very popular with people who want an Asian experience at home but don't want to travel to Asia to learn how!

These are hands-on classes held when the restaurant is closed to other customers.

We will teach you the correct way to chop, slice, dice and cook dishes from Thailand, India and Vietnam.

You even get to eat all the food you have prepared!

Cost includes all ingredients and recipe books (which you get to keep).

With the well-stocked Burning Beats Deli at hand you'll always be able to locate more of all the special ingredients!

Each class usually covers six dishes, so book now for either our Thai, Indian or Vietnamese cooking schools.
